

The menu is set against a steampunk-themed background. It features large, ornate gears in the top left and bottom left corners. The background is a textured, aged parchment paper with faint, illegible text. Various flowers, including large pink peonies and smaller pink roses, are scattered around the menu items. A small teapot with a floral design is positioned near the top center. A stack of four teacups (pink, yellow, white, and blue) sits on a blue saucer in the center-left. A butterfly is visible near the bottom center.
